

American Psychological Foundation Disaster Relief Grant

Grantor: American Psychological Foundation

Closes: 11/1/2010

Maximum: $10,000.00

American Psychological Foundation Disaster Relief Grant

Funding psychology-based programs that respond to emergencies or disaster relief and contribute to the sustained rebuilding of communities.

Deadline: November 1, 2010

The APF provides financial support for innovative research and programs that enhance the power of psychology to elevate the human condition and advance human potential both now and in generations to come. It executes this mission through a broad range of scholarships and grants. For all of these, it encourages applications from individuals who represent diversity in race, ethnicity, gender, age, disability, and sexual orientation.

The Disaster Relief Grant supports psychology based programs that respond to emergencies or disaster relief and contributed to the sustained rebuilding of communities. Special consideration will be given to programs with broad-based community support goals.

Program Goals

- * Promote the sustained rebuilding of the communities
- * Encourage the application of psychological science to problems arising in the aftermath of disasters and crises
- * Implement psychological principles into innovative programs for the recovery effort

Funding Specifics: Up to $10,000 will be available for projects

Affiliation with an education institution or with a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization

Special consideration will be given to programs with broad-based community support goals

Evaluation Criteria

- * Conformance with stated program goals
- * Demonstrated competence and capacity to execute the proposed work
- * Quality of proposed work

Proposal Requirements

* Description of proposed project to include goal, relevant background, other organizations involved, target population, methods, expected outcomes, geographic scope, total cost Format: up to 5 pages (1 inch margins, no smaller than 11 point font)

* CV of the project leader

Submission Process and Deadline

Submit a completed application online by November 1, 2010.

Questions about this program should be directed to Kim Palmer Rowsome, Program Officer by e-mail.

Link: <http://www.apa.org/apf/funding/disaster-relief.aspx>

Categories: Community Health, Community Outreach , Community Service Programs, Health Promotion, Health Services, Mental Health, Nonprofits, Psychology, Public Health, Public Service

Audience: Academic, Community Activist, Psychologist, Public Health Expert, Social Worker, Volunteer