The David P. Kuehn Speech Scholarship for Students Enrolled in a Communication Sciences and Disorders Program or Related Field

The David P. Kuehn Speech Scholarship is designed to help current master's or doctoral students enrolled in a communication sciences and disorders or related program participate in the American Cleft Palate-Craniofacial Association annual meeting. The Kuehn Scholarship provides a one-year student membership in ACPA, $500.00 for travel expenses related to the annual meeting, and fully paid for meeting registration including the pre-conference symposia, study sessions and eye-openers. Priority will be given to PhD student candidates conducting or planning to conduct research related to cleft lip/palate and craniofacial anomalies. Current ACPA members are ineligible.

Please complete the online application, submit it and the additional required information (resume/curriculum vitae, transcript, and department chair letter of current student status) by November 1, 2010.

Please call the National Office - 800.232.5338 with questions.

Please call or email the National Office if you would like a hard copy of the application.
