American Physiological Society Lazaro J. Mandel Young Investigator Award

Award: $4,000

Contact: Executive Office

Deadline: November 13

The Lazaro J. Mandel Young Investigator Award was established in 1999 in memory of Lazaro J. Mandel, professor of physiology at Duke University and long-standing APS member. The Lazaro J. Mandel Young Investigator Award is given annually to an individual demonstrating outstanding promise based on his/her research program in epithelial or renal physiology. Applications are accepted from members of APS working within the U.S. who hold an academic rank no higher than assistant professor. The award of $4,000 is designated for the use of the awardee in his/her research program. The award does not include any indirect cost reimbursement. The recipient receives complimentary registration to attend the meeting and a plaque presented at the APS Business Meeting held at the Experimental Biology meeting.

Applications will now only be accepted via online submission. Please go to <http://www.the-aps.org/awardapps> to apply.

For applications, contact the appropriate American Physiological Society office as listed at 9650 Rockville Pike, Bethesda, MD 20814-3991. Phone: 301-634-7118; fax: 301-634-7242; e-mail: awards@the-aps.org
