Grantor: American Physiological Society

Closes: 11/3/2010

Maximum: $2,500.00

2011 Robert W. Berliner Award for Excellence in Renal Physiology

The 2011 Robert W. Berliner Award for Excellence in Renal Physiology sponsored by Abbott Laboratories ($1000, reimbursement for up to $1500 in travel expenses, plus a complimentary ticket to the Renal Dinner) is the most prestigious award of the APS Renal Section. The award recognizes distinguished lifetime achievement in renal physiological research by a living scientist. Candidates must be at least 60 years of age, and must have been a major contributor to the field of renal physiology over a lifetime, including accomplishments in research, teaching, training and activities within the APS. The recipient will be honored at the 2011 Renal Dinner, and will participate in the Renal Section's Posters and Professors Reception at EB2011. Nomination materials consist of the candidate's curriculum vitae and a nomination letter summarizing the candidate's qualifications. Nominations from previous years are automatically carried forward for consideration in the following years.

Nomination materials must be submitted no later than November 3, 2010.
