

$5,000 Predoctoral Fellowships for Students in Nutrition Research

Grantor: American Society for Nutrition

Closes: 12/1/2010

Maximum: $5,000.00

$5,000 Predoctoral Fellowships for Students in Nutrition Research

Eligibility is based upon membership in the ASN and enrollment in a program listed on the ASN website in the ASN Directory of Graduate Programs in Nutritional Sciences. The deadline for the receipt of applications for the 2011 awards is December 1, 2010. The review committee will evaluate significance, feasibility, communication and clarity, as well as overall scientific technical quality of your proposal.

Complete the Predoctoral Fellowship Application and prepare a summary of your research proposal not to exceed four single-spaced typewritten pages including objective, experimental and selected references. A twelve-point, true-type font should be used with one-inch margins throughout. Applications that fail to comply with the guidelines will not be reviewed.

Type the proposal title at the top of each. Do not put the name of your institution or your name on the proposal. Prepare a one-page statement, in non-technical language, explaining the contribution of the proposed research to knowledge in nutrition.

Application forms are also available from your department/program office or from the American Society for Nutrition, 9650 Rockville Pike, Bethesda, MD 20814 (301) 634-7050.
