

American Academy of Family Physicians Foundation Joint Grant Awards Program

Grantor: American Academy of Family Physicians Foundation

Closes: 12/1/2010

Maximum: $50,000.00

American Academy of Family Physicians Foundation Joint Grant Awards Program

The Joint Grant Awards Program (JGAP) supports research that poses questions of high relevance to Family Medicine.

The maximum award for JGAP grants has been increased from $30,000 to $50,000. Applications for smaller-scale studies with lower costs are also welcome.

The program goals are to:

- * Support research of value to the practicing family physician
- * Encourage proposals by junior investigators
- * Fund pilot studies

JGAP applications are accepted twice a year:

- * June 1, 2010 - For the second review cycle of 2010
- * December 1, 2010 - For the first review cycle of 2011

Special Notice: The Research Committee especially encourages submission of proposals on topics applicable to the Patient Centered Medical Home. The PCMH has been selected as a priority topic for research in 2010 and the first cycle of 2011.
