

Competitive Essay Award of the Wimpfheimer-Guggenheim Fund for International Exchange in Nutrition, Dietetics and Management

Grantor: American Dietetic Association Foundation

Closes: 12/1/2010

Maximum: $1,000.00

Competitive Essay Award of the Wimpfheimer-Guggenheim Fund for International Exchange in Nutrition, Dietetics and Management

The Wimpfheimer–Guggenheim Fund for International Exchange in Nutrition, Dietetics and Management is offering a $1,000 award for an essay describing a plan preferably describing a plan to create a regional nutrition or dietetic association preferably in a developing country or countries or describing an effective mass feeding program for special groups such as the elderly, malnourished or disaster victims in a developing country. The project described should be easily adaptable to a variety of situations. The author must be a professional dietitian or nutritionist and must be involved in the actual project.

The essay winner must submit the essay for publication in a dietetics related newsletter or magazine. All applicants must be willing to share with others the ideas mentioned in their essay. Essays should be between five and seven typed, double spaced pages. Applications must be postmarked by December 1, 2009.

Include with this application the original and three copies of your essay. The essay title should be specific and informative, conveying the findings of the project.

Mail this application and the original plus five copies of your essay and face sheet to:

American Dietetic Association Foundation

Scholarships and Awards Manager

120 South Riverside Plaza

Suite 2000

Chicago, Illinois 60606

Any questions may be directed to Beth Labrador at 800/877-1600, ext. 4821

Link: http://www.adaf.org/cps/rde/xchg/adaf/hs.xsl/8459_14346_ENU_HTML.htm

Categories: Aging, At-Risk Populations, Disaster Management, Essay Award, Geriatrics , Global Health, Nutrition, Public Health, Scientific Publication, Underserved Populations

Audience: Dietician, Nutritionist