

Raymond A. Katzell Media Award in Industrial and Organizational Psychology

Grantor: American Psychological Association Division 14

Closes: 12/15/2010

Maximum: $4,000.00

Raymond A. Katzell Media Award in Industrial and Organizational Psychology

This Award recognizes evidence based news that advances both the science and practice of I-O psychology.

Deadline: December 15, 2010

Sponsor: Division 14

Description

The Raymond A. Katzell Media Award in I-O Psychology is designed to recognize evidenced-based news, feature stories, and editorials in any medium that advance both the science and practice of I-O psychology.

Nominees are considered for this award based on the following criteria:

- * The publication having more than a local distribution
- * The publication is well executed
- * The publication features I-O psychology research or practice with a sound scientific and technical basis

Recipients of the Katzell Media Award will receive a cash prize of $3,000 and will be invited to attend the SIOP annual conference to receive the award and make a presentation. Up to $1,000 will be awarded for travel expenses to the annual conference.

Those eligible for the award include science or business writers, reporters, television writers, directors, producers, and other members of the media.

This is a new award and all SIOP members are asked to nominate members of the media for this award!

Nominations should include:

- * Copy of the publication
- * Name of the member of the media being honored (e.g., writer, director or producer)

Link: <http://www.apa.org/about/awards/div-14-katzell.aspx>

Categories: Distinguished Service, Essay Award, Medical Journalism, Occupational Health, Psychology, Public Health, Public Outreach and Science Education

Audience: Journalist