Call for Nominations for American Academy of Pediatrics Section on Infectious Diseases Education Award

The AAP Section on Infectious Diseases is now accepting nominations for the Section on Infectious Diseases Award for Lifetime Contribution in Infectious Diseases Education.

This award is given annually to an Academy member who has made outstanding contributions to education in infectious diseases. The recipient will receive a cash award as well as travel to the National Convention and Exhibition for him/herself.

The candidate's contribution should be indicative of a substantial long-term dedication to the highest ideals of education. Preference will be made for those who have focused on education of practitioners.

If you wish to nominate an individual, or yourself, please submit the name and address of the nominee along with a current copy of the nominee's curriculum vitae by April 14, 2010 to Suzanne Kirkwood at:
