Rachel Warner Scholarship Program

COTT's Rachel Warner Memorial Scholarships are for educational use, from high school through graduate school. They are for individuals with any bleeding disorder. Awards are modest, seldom exceeding a thousand dollars. The May 1 deadline each year ensures time for awards and for planning additional resources for the year.

The Committee of Ten Thousand is proud to honor Rachel Warner through this Memorial Scholarship Fund. The fund awards scholarships to individuals who are committed to pursuing higher education in order to better themselves, thereby enhancing our community. This is a component of what Rachel believed in, stood for, and tirelessly advocated for: individual and community empowerment.
