International Neuroinformatics Coordinating Facility Image Competition 2010

Entry deadline is August 1, 2010.

Files must be in .jpeg, .tiff, .gif, .png, .svg, .pdf, .eps or .psd format. Please submit the highest quality image with regard to file size and resolution.

Prizes

Images submitted to the INCF Image Competition are eligible for two different prizes, see details below. Winners will be notified by August 25, 2010.

INCF Olympus Prize

The INCF Olympus Prize is a monetary prize, sponsored by Olympus with ¥200000 (about $2230). The prize sum might be split into a first and second prize according to the discretion of the jury. The INCF Olympus Prize will be awarded for the best neuroinformatics image, judged on the criteria of originality, informational content, visual impact, educational value and relevance to INCF Programs, activities and objectives.

INCF Frontiers Prize

The INCF Frontiers Prize will be awarded to the image best fitting the theme "Brain and Art". The short list for this prize will be picked by the Specialty Chief Editors of Frontiers in Neuroscience, and the final image will be selected by a panel of 5 top-class artists. The winning image will become the cover of the "Brain and Art" theme e-book of Frontiers in Neuroscience.

Eligibility

With the exception of employees of INCF, the competition judges and their families, anyone over the age of 18 is eligible to enter and win the competition.

Permissions

By submitting your image to the competition, you will:

a) give non-exclusive rights to INCF to use your name and the image in connection with INCF matters. Images will only be used in connection with the INCF and accompanying publicity and will include appropriate credits.

b) grant the prize sponsors Frontiers and Olympus non-exclusive rights to use your name and image. Images will only be used in connection with INCF and the competition, and will include appropriate credits.
