

American Society of Transplant Surgeons Vanguard Prize

Grantor: American Society of Transplant Surgeons

Closes: 9/14/2010

Maximum: $2,500.00

American Society of Transplant Surgeons Vanguard Prize

$2,500 & expenses to the ASTS Winter Symposium

Deadline: September 14, 2010

Description ASTS continues to recognize and honor ASTS junior members for their efforts in basic and clinical research by awarding travel prizes to the ASTS State of the Art Winter Symposium. It is designed to identify the best clinical and basic research manuscripts from young investigators in the previous year. Self nominations are accepted as well as nominations of junior faculty within five years of fellowship.

Amount $2,500 Honorarium

Expenses (coach airfare, hotel and registration) associated with attendance at the ASTS State of the Art Winter Symposium

Applicant Eligibility

Please review these eligibility requirements to ensure that you apply for an appropriate award.

ASTS Member (Regular or Candidate Member)

Clinical Instructor or Assistant Professor surgical faculty member at a UNOS approved (or Canadian equivalent) transplant center, within 5 years of appointment

Submission Requirements Online Application Form

Published Paper

CV

Other Requirements The Awardee must attend the ASTS Awards Ceremony at ASTS State of the Art Winter Symposium to formally accept the award.

Previous recipients of the Vanguard Prize are not eligible.

Other 2 awards available annually

* The funding of ASTS research awards is contingent upon the availability of funds and the receipt of qualified applications.

American Society of Transplant Surgeons 2461 South Clark St., Suite 640 Arlington, VA 22202 Phone: 703-414-7870
Fax: 703-414-7874

Link: <http://www.astso.org/awards/annualawardseligibility.aspx>

Categories: Basic Science, Career Development, Clinical Research, Medical Faculty, Scientific Importance/Achievement
, Transplantation

Audience: Junior Faculty, Junior Investigator, Junior Researcher, Junior Scientist, Medical School Faculty, Physician
Researcher, Transplant Surgeon