Geneva's Association's Ernst Meyer Prize

The Geneva Association awards every year the prestigious Ernst Meyer Prize for university research work, usually in the form of a doctoral thesis, which makes a significant and original contribution to the study of risk and insurance economics. As of September 2004, the Judging Committee for the Ernst-Meyer-Prize is composed of Prof. Andreas Richter (Chairman), Prof. Sandrine Spaeter and Prof. Richard Watt.

The application should include all of the following: (a) one hardcopy and an electronic version (pdf) of the thesis; (b) an English language abstract of 1,000-1,200 words; (c) two recommendations (written in English), each providing a review of the submitted work; and (d) a curriculum vitae in English.

Further requirements:

- * The thesis should have been accepted by the Ph.D. committee during the 15 months preceding the submission deadline.
- * Submissions are possible in one of the following languages: English, French, Spanish, German.
- * The prize awards 5,000 Swiss Francs.
- * The deadline for the Ernst-Meyer-Prize 2010 is 31 January 2011.
- * Applications should be addressed to The Geneva Association, "Ernst-Meyer Prize", General Secretariat, Route de Malagnou 53, CH-1208 Geneva.
