

2011 Carl W. Gottschalk Distinguished Lectureship of the American Physiological Society Renal Section

Grantor: American Physiological Society

Closes: 4/15/2011

Maximum: $3,000.00

2011 Carl W. Gottschalk Distinguished Lectureship of the American Physiological Society Renal Section

The 2011 Carl W. Gottschalk Distinguished Lectureship of the APS Renal Section ($1000 honorarium, reimbursement for up to $2000 in travel expenses, plus a complimentary ticket to the Renal Dinner) recognizes a world-renown, distinguished scientist who has made major contributions to understanding physiological processes through state-of-the-art research, and who is an engaging speaker. The candidate's area(s) of research expertise need not be in renal physiology, but should be of interest to Renal Section members. The candidate need not be an APS member or a US citizen.

In addition to delivering the Carl W. Gottschalk Distinguished Lecture, the recipient will participate in the Renal Section's Posters and Professors Reception and will be recognized at the Renal Dinner held during EB2011. Nominators must upload a 1 page summary of the candidate's contributions relevant to renal physiology. The letter must include the nominator's name, the proposed candidate's name, candidate's email address, and candidate's institution.

Nomination materials must be submitted by the deadline of April 15, 2011.

Link: <http://www.the-aps.org/meetings/eb10/awards/renal.htm>

Categories: Clinical Research, Kidney, Nephrology, Scientific Importance/Achievement

Audience: Distinguished Investigator, Distinguished Scholar, Distinguished Scientist, Nephrologist, Physician Researcher, Physiologist, Senior Investigator, Senior Researcher