American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine Research Awards

AOSSM offers awards for reports of original research in the following categories:

The Cabaud Memorial Award

This award is given to the best paper submitted concerning hard or soft tissue biology, in-vitro research, laboratory or "bench-type" research, or in-vivo animal research.

The O'Donoghue Award

This award is given to the best overall paper which deals with clinical based research or human in-vivo research.

The Excellence in Research Award

This award is given to the best paper submitted in any category to the Awards Committee with a primary author under the age of 40 at the time of the Annual Meeting.

Each award consists of:

$2000 honorarium

Award certificate

Presentation of the paper at the AOSSM Annual Meeting

Consideration of publication in The American Journal of Sports Medicine

Manuscripts to be considered for a research award should be emailed to Bart Mann by November 1st at 5:00 pm Central. Manuscripts may be considered in more than one category so please indicate which award(s) you would like to be considered for.
