Call for American Physical Therapy Association Annual Conference Ushers

June 6-9, 2012 Tampa, Florida

Calling student volunteers, attend conference for free! APTA is accepting student member applications to serve as ushers for the conference. Ushers who are selected will be reimbursed for their conference registration fee. There is a limited number of positions available, selections are based on having a broad representation of students, schools, and states.

Applicants must be current APTA student members.

By serving as an usher you enjoy benefits including:

Connecting with conference speakers and association leaders

Networking with academics and potential employers

Enjoying educational sessions and special events, including the popular Oxford Debate

Establishing new connections with your fellow students from around the country

Eligibility & Application

Applications are now being accepted for PT 2012. The application deadline is February 20. Ushers who are accepted will be notified by March 16.

Reimbursement

All ushers who complete at least 12 hours of assignments will receive a check reimbursing their registration fee. If your mailing address has changed since you submitted an application, please contact Mary Lynn Billitteri with the correct information.
