Center for the History of Family Medicine Fellowship in the History of Family Medicine

The Center for the History of Family Medicine (CHFM) is proud to announce its second annual Fellowship in the History of Family Medicine. Interested family physicians, other health professionals, historians, scholars, educators, scientists and others are invited to apply.

The successful applicant will be awarded a fellowship grant in an amount of up to $1,500 to support travel, lodging and incidental expenses relating to conducting research on a project of their choosing dealing with any aspect on the history of General Practice, Family Practice, or Family Medicine in the United States. The fellowship will be awarded directly to the individual applicant and not to the institution where he or she may be employed.

The deadline to apply is Friday, March 30, 2012. All applications will be reviewed in April, with the Fellowship award announced by May 31, 2012.

Complete fellowship rules, application forms and instructions are available online through the Center's website at the following link:
