

20th Century Midwife Awards

Grantor: American College of Nurse-Midwives Foundation

Closes: 4/1/2012

Maximum: $1,000.00

Applications Due April 1, 2012

These three awards are given to student midwives who participate in the OnGoing Group student project to meet and interview an elder midwife and record her story. Some educational programs plan to include this project as a part of the professional issues curriculum. After the interview, the student will write up the interview to be kept for historical purposes and also will write an essay about what she has learned and how this may influence her career.

ACNM Foundation is offering three national awards to the students who submit an essay about what they learned from the midwife they interviewed and how their listening to the elder midwife may influence their midwifery career. and it is anticipated that the students will plan to stay in contact with their interviewee. The winning essays or videos will be selected by a panel of judges and the students will be recognized at the 2012 annual meeting.

National Awards:

First Prize: $1,000

Second Prize: $ 500

Third Prize: Selection of ACNM Foundation Artwork: value approx. $200
