

American Art Therapy Association Gladys Agell Award for Excellence in Research

Grantor: American Art Therapy Association

Closes: 4/1/2012

Maximum: $250.00

American Art Therapy Association Gladys Agell Award for Excellence in Research

Criteria for Award:

1. The researcher must be a student member of the American Art Therapy Association, Inc.
2. An art therapist must be the principal investigator.
3. The study must be conducted in the area of applied art therapy research.
4. The research design must use a statistical measure.
5. The research must be student work completed within the past year.

Restrictions:

1. The financial award is $250.00.
2. The research results will be made available to members of the American Art Therapy Association, Inc. The method of dissemination will be determined by the Association Research Committee.
3. The submission must adhere to APA publication guidelines.

Application Schedule:

1. The deadline for submission of papers to be considered for this award will be April 1 of the year following graduation (both May and December graduates may submit papers by April 1 of the following year).
2. The Research Committee will review submissions and determine the winner prior to the annual conference.
3. The name of the winner will be announced, and the award presented at the Awards Ceremony at the annual conference.

American Art Therapy Association

225 North Fairfax Street

Alexandria, VA 22314

888-290-0878

703-548-5860

703-783-8468 (FAX)

Link: <http://www.americanarttherapyassociation.org/aata-awards.html>