American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Robinson-Cunningham Award

The availability of all awards is contingent upon receipt of adequate funding.

The AACAP Robinson-Cunningham Award is given for the best manuscript written by a child and adolescent psychiatrist during residency training. The paper must involve children, adolescents, or their families and be published in a professional, peer-reviewed journal within 3-5 years of graduation from a residency training program. The recipient will receive a $200 honorarium and a plaque at the Young Leaders Awards Ceremony during the AACAP Annual Meeting, October 23 – October 28, 2012 in San Francisco, CA.

To apply:

Send a cover letter, resume/CV, and one copy of your manuscript to training@aacap.org or to the following address by April 30, 2012 (postmark date):

Robinson-Cunningham Award
Department of Research, Training and Education
