Call for Applications: American Academy of Family Physicians National Conference of Family Medicine Residents and Medical Students Scholarships

July 26 – 28, 2012 Kansas City, Missouri

Community Outreach Award -- As a resident or student, have you taken a key leadership role in a community service or advocacy project? Tell us about your project and its impact on the community.

Family Medicine Interest Group (FMIG) Leadership Award -- Are you creative and innovative when it comes to planning FMIG activities? This is the scholarship for you. (This award is not limited to FMIG officers.)

First-Time Student Attendee Award -- Want to see what all the talk is about? Let us know the reasons you want to attend National Conference.

Minority Scholarship Program for Residents and Students -- What challenges and opportunities do you see for family medicine's future? Your answer could win you a scholarship to National Conference.

Tomorrow's Leader Award -- Do you possess the skills of a leader? Explain how you will lead the change to address the challenges and opportunities facing family physicians, and you could be one of the resident or medical student award recipients.

Rules and Information

You must be a member of the AAFP to apply.

You may only apply for one scholarship annually.

If you are a previous National Conference scholarship recipient, you may not apply for the same scholarship.

The number of scholarships in each category varies from year to year, depending on the number of applicants.

Scholarship recipients are selected by a panel of judges.

The $500 scholarship is intended to help reduce out-of-pocket expenses (i.e., registration, travel, lodging, meals) to attend

National Conference.

All scholarships are awarded at National Conference. If you are unable to attend the conference, your scholarship will be forfeited.

Deadline

Scholarship applications (with any required signatures and documentation) must be received via fax, email, or mail postmarked no later than May 1, 2012.

Winners will be notified on May 31, 2012.
