

Call for Nominations: Herbert W. Nickens Award

Grantor: Association of American Medical Colleges

Closes: 5/4/2012

Maximum: $10,000.00

Call for Nominations: Herbert W. Nickens Award

The award is given to an individual who has made outstanding contributions to promoting justice in medical education and health care equities for people in the United States. The recipient receives a $10,000 award and presents the Nickens Lecture at the AAMC Annual Meeting.

Dr. Nickens believed that a multidisciplinary approach is needed to address inequities in health. Because of this, nominees may come from a wide range of fields, including medicine, dentistry, education, law, nursing, pharmacy, public health, and social and behavioral sciences.

Nomination Process

A nomination packet must contain 10 stapled sets (one with originals; nine with photocopies). Each stapled set must be collated in the following order:

1. a nomination letter, which does not exceed five double-spaced pages, explaining the nominee's qualifications for the award:

Highlight their specific work in promoting social justice in medical education and health equities; and Testimonials that support their contributions to promoting social justice in medical education and health equities are required.

2. a current curriculum vitae (CV) for the nominee.

*The letter must be doubled-spaced with 1" margins, and size 12, Times New Roman font. (No additional materials will be considered)

A nomination packet with 10 collated and stapled sets must be received by May 4, 2012. Late nominations will not be considered.
