Grantor: American Psychological Association of Graduate Students

Closes: 5/9/2012

Maximum: $1,000.00

American Psychological Association of Graduate Students Committee on Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Concerns Grant Program

This grant is for a project that promotes training and educational experiences in LGBT practice.

Deadline: May 9, 2012

Sponsor: APAGS Committee on Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Concerns (CLGBTC)

APAGS-CLGBTC will award a $1,000 grant for a project that promotes training and educational experiences in LGBT practice. Examples include, but are not limited to: workshops, conferences, speaker series, mentorship programs, and the development of student organizations with a focus on LGBT concerns.

APAGS scholarships are available to graduate student members of APAGS who are enrolled at least halftime as a student in good standing at a regionally accredited university. If you are a student affiliate of APA and are in a masters or doctoral program, you are automatically a member of APAGS. Undergraduates are not eligible for these scholarships, nor are APAGS officers, subcommittee, or task force chairs. Previous recipients of each award are not eligible to apply again for a period of five years.

To apply, please submit:

Title page that includes name of the scholarship for which you are applying, contact information for applicant (name, mailing address, phone number, email), university, expected graduation date, APA membership number.

Summary of the proposed project (not to exceed two pages, single-spaced).

Anticipated speakers - (if applicable) include the names, professional titles and affiliations of all speakers (not to exceed one page, single-spaced).

Evaluation - explain any evaluations or handouts that will be disseminated at the end of the program (not to exceed two pages, single-spaced).

One letter of recommendation supporting your application (not to exceed two pages, single spaced) that address your qualifications, your probability of benefiting from the training program, and the likelihood that your training experience will help meet your future educational and professional goals.

Appendix - (if applicable) provide copies of any brochures or advertisements to publicize the program or event (not to exceed one page, single-spaced).

If you are not an APAGS member at the time of submission, you may send a copy of the receipt you get when you join APAGS/APA electronically as proof of membership.

Deadline: May 9, 2012

You may submit materials electronically or by mail.
