

American Association for Women Radiologists Research Seed Grant

Grantor: American Association for Women Radiologists

Closes: 8/31/2012

Maximum: $5,000.00

American Association for Women Radiologists Research Seed Grant

PURPOSE: To assist AAWR investigators gain experience in testing hypotheses and defining objectives before they apply for major grants from corporations, foundation or government agencies, by underwriting preliminary studies required prior to seeking major funding for a project.

AMOUNT: One year grant of $5,000 or less, payable to the Department in two equal installments. The first installment will be paid in November at the RSNA Scientific Assembly and Annual Meeting. The second installment will be paid at the conclusion of the study, after a review of the study has been submitted to the AAWR newsletter, Focus, and been submitted either for scientific presentation, work in progress, or a peer reviewed journal. The Foundation does not pay institutional overhead costs.

REQUIREMENTS: AAWR Research Seed grant is targeted to active AAWR members who require support to explore the initial approach to a research plan, and to provide experience supporting an application for a more comprehensive study of the research topic. Again, the applicant must be an active member of the AAWR and should hold an academic position in the rank of Instructor or Assistant Professor, and should not have served as principal investigator in a major ($50,000 or more) grant.

OTHER PROVISIONS:

Any area of radiology-related research is eligible including basic, clinical; developmental; health care planning, delivery, and evaluation; and education.

Funding is for new projects, not to support portions of large, previously funded work.

Final report is to be submitted to the AAWR Research and Education Foundation within 60 days after completion of the project. Project should be completed within a two-year period.

The start date for the grant is in November at the RSNA Annual Meeting.

All scientific publications and exhibits resulting from Foundation supported research must acknowledge AAWR Research and Education Foundation support.

Applicant must be a member of AAWR for at least two years prior to application.
