

Travel Awards for Young Investigators and Developing Nations Investigators for the 15th World Conference on Lung Cancer

Grantor: International Association for the Study of Lung Cancer

Closes: 6/21/2013

Maximum: $0.00

Travel Awards for Young Investigators and Developing Nations Investigators for the 15th World Conference on Lung Cancer

Travel Awards will be available for Young Investigators (35 years of age or younger) and Developing Nations Investigators. These awards will consist of complimentary registration to the Conference, up to five nights accommodation at one of the Conference contracted hotels, a fixed amount to help offset travel expenses and free membership in the International Association for The Study of Lung Cancer for one year.

If you fulfill all criteria for both awards, you may apply for both; however, if selected, you will only be offered one award.

HOW TO APPLY

The candidate must be the first author and presenter of the submitted abstract

Parts of the work can be presented prior to the 15th World Conference on Lung Cancer, but the submitted abstract MUST include new information not being presented prior to WCLC 2013
